HARISH KUMAR

In 2014, Harish Kumar made a profound life transition - stepping away from boardroom strategy to embrace spiritual sciences full-time. He immersed himself in the study and application of Vedic knowledge systems, especially Krishan Paddhati Numerology and traditional Indian Astrology. He completed formal studies in cosmic psychology and metaphysical systems at Bhawan Vidyalaya and embarked on a national pilgrimage, learning from sages, seers, and sacred geographies that continue to shape his inner and outer journey.

As a spiritual consultant, Harish seamlessly integrates ancient principles with modern life challenges—offering clarity, alignment, and growth to clients navigating personal and professional crossroads. His writings on Indian metaphysical traditions, though yet unpublished, reflect a deeply intuitive and rigorously researched perspective.

Educated with a Diploma in Instrumentation (1988), Harish combines analytical rigor with spiritual discernment, grounding his guidance in both structure and soul. Fluent in the language of leadership as well as that of intuition, he is often sought after by individuals and organizations alike—for career coaching, life alignment, and purposeful living.

To know Harish Kumar is to witness the power of synthesis: tradition and transformation, logic and mysticism, commerce and consciousness. His philosophy is simple yet profound:

As a guiding force behind his spiritual consultancy, Harish Kumar envisions a world where ancient wisdom is not archived but activated—applied to modern dilemmas with precision and compassion. Under his thoughtful mentorship, individuals rediscover clarity, purpose, and alignment in both personal and professional spheres. His philosophy has shaped a path of conscious leadership—one that values depth over speed, authenticity over appearance, and connection over transaction.

Through Wild Greyhound and beyond, Harish continues to foster transformational spaces for learning, introspection, and growth. His ability to perceive unseen energies and translate them into actionable guidance has made him a trusted advisor for those seeking more than success—those seeking meaning.
